

Student Life: Stage 6
A Day in the Life

www.ahbl.ca/students

A day in the life of an articling student at AHBL is anything but routine. An in-house training seminar. An urgent attendance at Chambers. Drafting a waiver. Drafting a will. Coffee. A research memo. Updating a client on the status of their matter. Treats. More coffee. Interviewing a potential witness on a small claims file. Preparing a reporting letter. Reviewing the latest CLE on a particular issue faced by a client. A small incident involving a missing keyboard and a firm "prankster." It's all par for the course.

There are, however, two things you can be certain of; you won't be bored and, by the end of any given day, you will know a great deal more about the practice of law. Gaining that practical experience is what it's all about.

For additional information about what to expect during your articles, more discussion about different stages of student life, and practical insight on making the transition from student to lawyer, please visit our website.

Suite 2700-700 West Georgia St.
Vancouver, BC Canada V7Y 1B8

www.ahbl.ca info@ahbl.ca
(Tel) 604 484 1700 (Fax) 604 484 9700