

ACCOUNTING

Leaders in the accounting profession are finding creative ways of meeting the growing demand for innovation, responsiveness, and comprehensive services. While opportunities abound, accounting firms must first navigate a complex regulatory environment while providing services that are efficient and client-focused. Alexander Holburn has the expertise to help professionals and their firms meet these challenges.

We work closely with accounting professionals, becoming their strategic partners. This close relationship allows us to guide clients through the complex and multifaceted issues that arise. Our lawyers draw from their deep knowledge of professional services to address client needs. With expertise across a wide range of business law, litigation, and insurance, we can help you overcome challenges and meet your business goals.

We assist firms of all sizes operating within British Columbia and Ontario with a variety of items, including liability matters, regulatory requirements, and insurance. We also assist our clients as they grow, whether this is through partnership negotiations and the hiring of new talented professionals or through strategic acquisitions of accounting practices or a merger. Our knowledge of business law and labour & employment law allows us to support our clients' entrepreneurial objectives.

Our firm offers a wide range of services including:

- Incorporations
- Drafting of partnership or shareholders agreements
- Assistance with engagement letters
- Onboarding and offloading partners or accountants
- Buying and Selling Client Books
- Employment advice
- Leasing advice
- General contract review
- Negotiation

By working closely with former Chartered Professional Accountants of British Columbia (CPABC) auditors, we have developed an in-depth knowledge of developments in public and private accounting in British Columbia, Ontario, and the rest of Canada.
