

ADMINISTRATIVE + PUBLIC LAW

Regulatory and administrative law play an important governing role for both individuals and businesses. Understanding and successfully navigating this complex legal landscape is essential for our clients.

OUR EXPERTISE

We have expertise assisting clients in all aspects of professional discipline matters. We have supported clients throughout the judicial review process at both the Supreme Court and Court of Appeal levels. If you have a matter before a regulatory or other administrative body, or you have received an administrative decision that you have questions about, our team can provide you with the assistance you need to understand the relevant regulatory framework.

OUR SERVICES

Our Administrative + Public Law team provides advice and representation for individuals in various sectors including real estate, insurance, forestry, policing, municipal and local government, environmental management and health services. We also act for professional and sport governing bodies.
