DALE-JOHNSON
ASSOCIATE COUNSEL

BIOGRAPHY

Alana Dale-Johnson is a member of the firm's Corporate Commercial Group.

Her practice focuses on corporate commercial structuring and transactions for businesses of all sizes and types. She specializes in incorporations, corporate reorganizations, and purchases and sales of businesses.

Her experience also includes drafting and negotiating shareholders and partnership agreements, acquisitions of commercial real estate, commercial leases, and contract drafting.

As a business advisor to her clients, Alana provides a unique approach which focuses on holistic legal guidance delivered in a down-to-earth and realistic manner.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Alana is an avid reader and cannot resist purchasing books. She also loves all things related to travel and has done so extensively (although hard to decide, her most memorable trips to date having been to South Africa and India). Recently, she started playing the piano again, having stopped when she graduated high school. She is not (yet) leaving law to become a musician.
