BIOGRAPHY

Aleksandar Polic is an Associate and a member of the firm's Insurance Practice Group.

Aleksandar's practice is primarily litigation-based, including insurance defence and general civil litigation. He defends matters arising under first-party property, professional liability, commercial general liability and motor vehicle liability insurance policies, including claims for personal injury, occupiers' liability, municipal liability, professional negligence, product liability and errors and omissions.

In addition to his insurance defence practice, Aleksandar also provides coverage advice to insurer clients, advising on policy and statutory interpretation, obligations and rights under insurance policies.

Aleksandar also completed the IPC program at the Bora Laskin Faculty of Law, which suited his practical, elastic and creative style. He also has volunteer experience providing mediation services in his hometown community for a non-profit organization. He is passionate about working with clients, adopting a collaborative approach to assessing risk and developing litigation strategies.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Outside of work, Aleksandar enjoys hiking, rock climbing, volleyball, music and food. He values quality time with family, friends, nature and literature as fundamental to his sense of balance and personal enrichment.
