BIOGRAPHY

Alireza joined Alexander Holburn as a summer articulated student in May 2021 and will return for articles in 2022.

During law school, Alireza represented University of Calgary in the Alberta Court of Appeal Moots. He also sat on the University's Appeals Committee and Tribunal, and was a member of the Negotiations Club. Before joining Alexander Holburn, Alireza worked at Student Legal Assistance, a not-for-profit representing low-income Calgarians in criminal, civil, and family matters in Provincial Court. In his second year, he was also responsible for mentoring new caseworkers in the organization.

Prior to law school, Alireza obtained a Bachelor of Science degree with honours at the University of British Columbia, where he studied Physiology and Immunology and conducted research in various fields of Microbiology.

Alireza is primarily interested in litigation. His focus lies in insurance defense and professional liability.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Outside of work, Alireza enjoys watching Disney or Marvel movies. He also loves travelling and trying street food in every country he visits.
