BIOGRAPHY

Allison is a member of our Aviation, Labour & Employment, Franchise, and Business Disputes practice groups.

Allison joined Alexander Holburn as a summer student in May 2021 and returned for articles prior to joining the firm as an associate.

She has worked as a research assistant, a professional ballerina and in construction machinery sales prior to attending law school.

In her first year of law school at Thompson Rivers University she won the Canadian Institute for Administration of Justice's National Law Student Competition. She hosted a radio show for Pro Bono Students Canada and was a student editor of the Canadian Journal of Comparative and Contemporary Law. Allison later competed as an oralist in the 2021 Phillip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition.

Allison's awards include the Outstanding First-Year Moot Prize, the Dean's Course Prize in Administrative Law, the Bill W. Eremko Memorial Law Award, and the TRU Internal Law Moot Prize. Allison graduated from TRU Law in 2022 on the Dean's List.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

In her free time Allison enjoys ballet, baking and is an avid MMA fan.
