VULINOVIC-ZLATAN
SUMMER STUDENT

BIOGRAPHY

Andrea Vulinovic-Zlatan joined Alexander Holburn as a summer student in May of 2025.

Prior to law school, Andrea earned a Bachelor of Arts from SFU, in which she double majored in Political Science and French. During her undergraduate studies, she completed two exchange semesters at Sciences Po in Strasbourg, France. Her previous employment experience includes working as a bilingual Citizen Services Officer for the Government of Canada. At McGill Law, she also worked as a Research Assistant on the subject of artificial intelligence regulation.

Andrea is primarily interested in administrative law, employment law, and class action litigation.

Andrea was a Senior Caseworker at the Legal Information Clinic at McGill (LICM), and Co-Director of the McGill International Refugee Assistance Project. She also volunteered with the McGill International Law Society (MILS), and acted as a Group Assistant for McGill Law's "Administrative Process" course.

Andrea earned the Rama Reddy Award from SFU, for graduating with the highest CGPA in Political Science. She was also awarded the Nathan Schipper Entrance Scholarship from McGill Faculty of Law, and the Hon. Justice Bruno Guillot-Hurtubise Award for Service through Legal Research from the LICM.
