ASHLEY DHANDA

ASSOCIATE

BIOGRAPHY

Ashley Dhanda is an Associate and a member of the firm's Admin Law, Health Law and Local Government Practice Groups.

Ashley joined Alexander Holburn as an articling student before becoming an associate. She has a general litigation practice, which includes insurance litigation with a developing focus on local government and health law.

Ashley attended Allard School of Law at the University of British Columbia. During law school, she volunteered with Justice for Girls, served as an Assistant Editor for the UBC Law Review and was Program Coordinator for Pro Bono Students Canada.

Prior to law school, Ashley completed a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science at the University of British Columbia.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

In her spare time, Ashley enjoys soaking up the sun at Vancouver's beaches, spending time outside on long walks, and curling up with a good book.
