BIOGRAPHY

Chantalle Youkhana is a member of the firm's insurance, business disputes and health care groups.

Her practice is primarily litigation based, with a focus on general insurance, professional liability, and health law.

Chantalle has represented clients before various levels of Court, on a wide range of complex and nuanced matters including various tort, fraud, special investigations, property, negligence, and insurance proceedings.

She has represented insurers, regulators, professional associations, individuals, and other professionals in civil actions and in human rights proceedings. Chantalle has also represented clients before tribunals, professional colleges, and has appeared before the Health Professions Appeal and Review Board (HPARB).

Chantalle is a Doctor of Chiropractic and has a Master of Laws, with a specialization in Health Law. Chantalle's training and background in health, combined with her specialized education, provide her with unique insight and skill when defending health-related actions including negligence, malpractice, breach of contract, privacy, breach of fiduciary duty, battery, professional discipline, complaints, and other regulatory matters.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

When not on the clock, Chantalle has a passion for art, sports, cooking and all things food, wine and scotch. She enjoys spending time with her family or trotting around the globe. Most importantly, Chantalle's greatest affection is
