

BIOGRAPHY

Chloé joined Alexander Holburn as a Summer Student in May 2026.

Prior to law school, Chloé graduated with distinction from the University of Victoria, earning a B. A with a major in sociology and a minor in psychology. For several years before starting law school, Chloé worked for the BC Prosecution Service in different capacities, including as a legal assistant, regional administrative bail coordinator, and office manager. Following her first year of law school, she spent the Summer working at a full-service firm in Victoria.

Chloé has enjoyed her time working as a peer tutor in her second year of law school, providing academic and social support to first-year students. She has also expanded her passion for the practice of law during her term with the University of Victoria Environmental Law Centre Clinic (ELC), offering pro-bono legal services in the area of environmental law.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Chloé enjoys cooking, baking, playing tennis with friends, and spending time by the ocean.
