

CHRIS
PANG
SUMMER STUDENT

BIOGRAPHY

Chris Pang joined Alexander Holburn as a summer student in May 2025.

Chris is currently attending the Peter A. Allard School of Law. During his time there, he received the course prize in Criminal Law, competed in and won the top oralist prize at the Wilson Moot, and served as Co-President of the UBC Trial Lawyers Association Oral Advocacy Society.

Before law school, Chris completed his degree at the University of Toronto and worked as a debate coach.

He is particularly interested in administrative and constitutional law.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

During his free time, Chris enjoys running and going to concerts. He is also an avid foodie and loves exploring new restaurants.
