

CHRISTY
TANG
STUDENT

BIOGRAPHY

Christy joined Alexander Holburn as a summer student in May 2021 and will return for articles in 2022.

She is currently attending the Peter A. Allard School of Law at the University of British Columbia and has a B.B.A. concentrating in finance from Simon Fraser University.

During law school, Christy participated in the UBC Criminal Law Clinic where she worked on criminal cases as defence counsel and appeared numerous times at the BC Provincial Court. She was also a member of Pro-Bono Students Canada where she volunteered at a legal outreach clinic, worked as a research assistant for a BC Human Rights Tribunal project, and was an assistant editor on the UBC Law Review.

Before law school, Christy worked as a legal administrative assistant at a personal injury law firm, where she discovered an interest in litigation.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Outside of work and school, Christy enjoys cooking, binge-watching crime dramas, and reading dystopian novels.
