BIOGRAPHY

Cory is a member of the firm's Administrative Law, Local Government and Insurance Practice Groups.

Cory is also a member of the Defamation + Publication Risk Management group. His practice is litigation-based with a focus on administrative law and insurance litigation defence, and includes professional disciplinary matters, personal injury, property damage, and defamation.

Cory has represented clients before the Provincial Court of British Columbia and Supreme Court of British Columbia. Prior to joining Alexander Holburn as an associate, he was a summer student in 2020 and completed articles with the firm.

During law school, Cory was a research assistant, working on a textbook on private international law in Nigeria.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

In his off-time, if he isn't playing video games, you can find Cory playing Magic: The Gathering, or painting miniature models.
