BIOGRAPHY

Cory is a member of the firm's Insurance, Administrative Law, Local Government, and Police Law + Liability Practice Groups.

His practice is litigation-based with focus on insurance litigation defence, including professional disciplinary matters, personal injury and property damage. He also assists municipal police departments, specializing in issues surrounding section 490 of the Criminal Code.

Cory regularly represents clients before the Provincial Court of British Columbia and Supreme Court of British Columbia. Prior to joining Alexander Holburn as an associate, he was a summer student in 2020 and completed articles with the firm.

During law school, Cory was a research assistant, working on a textbook on private international law in Nigeria.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

In his off-time, if he isn't playing video games, you can find Cory painting or testing new recipes.
