CYANNE NISBETT

ASSOCIATE

BIOGRAPHY

Cyanne is an Associate in the firm's Insurance, Health and Local Government practice groups.

Cyanne's practice is litigation based with a focus on insurance defence, professional liability and local government. She has experience dealing with a wide variety of legal claims, including occupiers' liability, professional negligence, property damage and personal injury.

Cyanne has represented clients before the Supreme Court of British Columbia and the Provincial Court of British Columbia. She joined Alexander Holburn as a summer student in 2020 and returned for articles prior to joining the firm as an associate.

During law school, Cyanne completed a co-op term at the Department of Justice in the Public Safety, Defense and Immigration section of the National Litigation Sector, and her suspected love of litigation was confirmed. Alexander Holburn's large litigation practice and many diverse practice areas were a huge draw to Cyanne and have enabled her to craft a varied practice.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

In her spare time, Cyanne can usually be found taking in the sunset with her MinPin, Jasmine. In addition to ensuring Jasmine is living her best life, Cyanne likes to spend her time getting creative with alcohol ink art, building muscle through pole sport and resistance training, and watching 90s romcoms.
