

GURLEEN
BHANDAL
ARTICLING STUDENT

BIOGRAPHY

Gurleen joined AHBL as an articling student in 2025.

Prior to law school, Gurleen completed a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science at UBC. During her undergraduate degree, she was a thrower on the UBC Women's Varsity Track and Field team.

Gurleen attended law school at the University of Ottawa. At law school, she completed a legal internship at a financial technology company. Gurleen was a student clinician at the uOttawa Environmental Law Clinic, an assistant editor at the Ottawa Law Review and a research fellow at the Centre for Law, Technology and Society.

During her law school summers, she worked as a Review Officer at WorkSafeBC and at Engineers and Geoscientists BC.

Gurleen is interested in exploring various areas of law, particularly in Construction + Engineering, Estate Litigation, and Insurance.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

When not at work, you can find Gurleen enjoying reading fiction books, especially mysteries and exploring different neighbourhoods to find the best cafes in Vancouver.
