

JACKIE
HARMS
PARALEGAL

BIOGRAPHY

Jackie is a Commercial Banking and Lending Paralegal assisting Patrick Cleary and Wade Winkler. She also assists in the Real Estate practice group.

Jackie attended Red River College in Winnipeg, Manitoba and continued her education in British Columbia at Marie Tomko College of Business where she received her Paralegal Certificate. She has attended numerous CLE courses on corporate and conveyancing procedures. She has also taught the Conveyancing Procedures course at Vancouver Community College and the Vancouver Community College online conveyance course.

Jackie commenced her career over 30 years ago as a legal assistant in a conveyance department and quickly advanced to a conveyance paralegal and is now happy to be a commercial lending paralegal in the Banking and Lending practice. She has knowledge in commercial banking/lending, due diligence, conveyancing and private lending.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Jackie loves to scrapbook, and go for walks and on hikes. Her true love is spending time with her family, especially during the holidays.
