

JASON RONSELEY
STUDENT

BIOGRAPHY

Jason joined Alexander Holburn as a summer student in May 2021 and will return for articles in 2022.

He is currently attending law school at Thompson Rivers University, where he is the Student Representative on the TRU Community Trust and President of the Basketball Club. In 2020, he worked as a Research Assistant for Dr. Ryan Gauthier in the field of Financial Fair Play Regulations in the Union of European Football Associations (UEFA). While at TRU, Jason also participated in the Oral Advocacy Moot Trial.

Prior to law school, Jason was a professional sports agent for six years. He brings experience in business, contract law, and client management to Alexander Holburn. Jason has also worked as a high school basketball coach and a behavior interventionist for children with disabilities.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

When Jason is not working, he can be found in the mountains, riding his bike, or playing his guitar.
