

JEFFREY
ZHANG
SUMMER STUDENT

BIOGRAPHY

Jeffery Zhang joined Alexander Holburn as a summer student in May of 2024. He will be returning to join the 2025/2026 Articling Cohort in September 2025.

Jeffrey is currently attending Windsor Law. During his first two years, he participated in various moots, served on the executive teams of the Asian Law Students Organization and Real Estate Law Association of Windsor, and worked as a caseworker in Community Legal Aid.

Prior to attending law school, Jeffrey completed his degree from the University of British Columbia (UBC), where he aided a SEEDS research team on a research paper in Environmental Psychology and helped run the UBC Quizbowl Team.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Jeffrey is an avid foodie who loves the outdoors. On weekends, he takes his dog Viki to the trails in North Vancouver. In his free time, he loves to explore local markets for interesting ingredients to make meals. He also takes time to play video games or hit the bouldering wall.
