

JESSICA
THOMPSON
PARALEGAL

BIOGRAPHY

Jessica Thompson joined Alexander Holburn as an Insurance Litigation Paralegal in 2019.

Jessica originally attended Herzing College in Winnipeg, Manitoba, where she obtained her legal administrative assistant certificate. After working a number of years as an LAA in Winnipeg, she made the move to Vancouver in 2015. Jessica has continued her education in British Columbia at Vancouver Community College where she obtained her paralegal certificate in 2019. Jessica now has over six years of experience working in the legal industry where her focus has been mainly insurance litigation, as well as health law.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Jessica is an outdoor enthusiast and ultramarathon runner. Outside of work she spends much of her time in the mountains, either running or exploring new hiking trails with friends.
