BIOGRAPHY

Naomi Krueger is a Partner and a member of the firm's Administrative Law, Insurance, Health, Defamation + Publication Risk Management and Local Government Practices.

Naomi's practice is litigation-based with a focus on municipal, health and administrative law. On a day-to-day basis, Naomi deals with a variety of claims including professional negligence, professional disciplinary matters, personal injury, property damage, occupiers' liability and products' liability.

Naomi received her J.D. from the University of Ottawa after completing her third year of legal studies at Peter A. Allard School of Law at the University of British Columbia, where she now teaches Topics in Public Law.

Naomi was called to the British Columbia Bar in 2017. Before completing her articles at the firm, she worked as a judicial law clerk at the British Columbia Court of Appeal. Prior to law school, she completed a Bachelor of Arts in International Relations at the University of British Columbia.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

In her spare time, Naomi enjoys running, hiking and travelling.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

Naomi has represented clients in the BC Supreme Court, the BC Provincial Court and at various regulatory tribunals.
