BIOGRAPHY

Hoops Harrison is the group leader for the firm's Insolvency + Restructuring Practice, and a member of the Mergers + Acquisitions and Corporate/Commercial Practice Groups. He practises in the area of business litigation with a focus on corporate restructuring and insolvency related matters. He also specializes in realization/foreclosure law and operational matters specific to financial institutions.

Hoops has appeared before all levels of Court in British Columbia and Alberta as well as the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List).

Hoops also has a special interest in advocacy and access to justice. He has recently been appointed to British Columbia's Civil Resolution Tribunal – Canada's first online Tribunal for resolving strata and small claims disputes, as well as British Columbia's Employment Standards Tribunal.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Hoops is passionate about helping to preserve BC's unique ecosystems. He is a trustee of British Columbia's Islands Trust Fund Board.

Personally, he enjoys spending time kayaking or, at least, writing fictional screenplays about himself kayaking.
