BIOGRAPHY

Robert Anderson is an Associate and a member of our Aviation Practice Group.

Robert advises private and institutional clients on a broad range of transportation-related insurance matters with an emphasis on aviation claims.

He has appeared before the Provincial and Supreme Courts of British Columbia, the Federal Court of Canada, and the Transportation Appeal Tribunal of Canada, and has assisted clients in regulatory investigations conducted by Transport Canada and the Transportation Safety Board.

In addition to working with the Aviation Practice Group, Robert also works with clients in maritime and fisheries law. His experience includes vessel purchase and sale transactions, commercial fishing licence and quota agreements, joint ventures and trust arrangements, as well as acting for commercial lenders in maritime secured financing matters.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Robert is an avid rugby, hockey and football fan and in his spare time, can likely be found somewhere on the water or suffering up a hill on his bike.
