BIOGRAPHY

Sabrina Ouyang is an Associate and a member of our Wills, Estates + Trusts, Corporate and Commercial, Charities + Non Profit and Mergers + Acquisitions Practice Groups.

Sabrina advises clients on estate planning, incapacity planning, and estate administration matters. She also maintains a broad business law practice and is fluent in Cantonese and Mandarin.

Sabrina joined the firm as a summer student in May 2023 and completed her articles with the firm before becoming an associate. During law school, Sabrina was a student clinician with the International Justice and Human Rights Clinic, working with the All Party Parliamentary Group to End Modern Slavery and conducting analyses of member states' performances for the International Labour Organization. She was also the Co-President of the Asia Pacific Law Club and served as clinic head of the Law Students' Legal Advice Program's Chinatown Clinic.

Prior to law school, Sabrina studied Biology and Urban Studies at the University of British Columbia.

She currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Federation of Asian Canadian Lawyers (British Columbia).

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Sabrina loves the outdoors and can be found hiking and camping on the weekends. In her free time, she enjoys playing tennis, visiting art galleries, and biking along the Vancouver seawall.
