

SAM
SPARTANO
ARTICLING STUDENT

BIOGRAPHY

Sam Spartano joined Alexander Holburn as an articling student in September of 2026.

During his time at law school, Sam acted as an Events Coordinator for the Career Services Office Committee, and as Treasurer of the Indigenous Law Students' Association. Prior to articling, Sam worked as a research assistant for human rights, labour and justice issues. He also completed his summer articles at Black Burke Mayor, focusing on work in labour and employment law.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Outside of work, Sam enjoys DJing, watching movies with his friends, and visiting his ever-expanding Italian family.

PUBLICATIONS

- June 7, 2020, "Back to Business: Protect Your Business in the New Normal!", TIA Virtual Lunch & Learn, Speaker
- March 2020, "Frustrated by COVID-19: Recovering and Preventing Business Losses", IADC Committee Newsletter, Co-Author

PROFESSIONAL & COMMUNITY AFFILIATIONS

- Allard Career Services Office Committee – Events Coordinator

EMAIL sspartano@ahbl.ca
TEL

EDUCATION

- J.D. 2026 University of British Columbia
 - B.A. 2022 Simon Fraser University
-

- Allard Indigenous Law Students' Association – Treasurer
- Law Students' Legal Advice Program – Head Clinician

SAM
SPARTANO
ARTICLING STUDENT