BIOGRAPHY

Sina Sahebpour is an associate and a member of our Business Disputes and Labour + Employment Practice Group.

Sina joined Alexander Holburn as a summer student in May 2023 and returned as an articling student in July 2024.

Sina served as vice president and president of his class in the Queen's Law Student Society.

During the summer of 2022, Sina worked at Queen's Prison Law Clinic. There he advised and represented clients in a variety of matters ranging from Disciplinary Court to Parole Hearings. Sina also spent 2022 and 2023 working as a research assistant looking at the development of evidence law and interpretation of insurance clauses.

Sina explored his interest in litigation through the Gale Cup both as an oralist one year and as a student peer coach the following year.

Prior to Law School, Sina obtained bachelor's degree in biology and an honours degree in psychology.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Soccer, food, chess, and movies are Sina's interests and topics he would love to discuss at any point.
