

TRACY
CHANDONNET
LAW CLERK

BIOGRAPHY

Tracy is a senior law clerk in the insurance litigation group. She brings over 30 years of legal industry experience and extensive knowledge to her current role, which is focused primarily on insurance litigation, with an emphasis on defending claims involving police civil liability, professional negligence, and personal injury, as well as claims involving institutional sexual abuse.

Tracy has gained diverse experience, developing a strong ability to adapt to different working styles and legal teams. Highly organized and meticulous in her approach, she is recognized for her efficiency, strong communication skills, and commitment to client services.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Outside of work, Tracy enjoys live music, beach camping, and playing volleyball. She's a passionate Blue Jays fan and, thanks to Taylor Swift, has discovered a love for football too – enthusiastically cheering on the Chiefs.
