BIOGRAPHY

Wendy Yang joined Alexander Holburn as a summer student in May of 2024.

Wendy currently attends the Schulich School of Law at Dalhousie University, where she acts as the Vice President of Student Life for the Law Students' Society and the Vice President of External for the Asian Law Students' Society. Wendy spent her 1L summer working as an Operations Coordinator for an oil company where she was involved with multiple departments.

Prior to attending law school, Wendy earned a Bachelor of Science in Honours Biology from the University of British Columbia. During her undergraduate studies, she conducted respiratory research on ground squirrels, coordinated orientation activities for science students, and spearheaded a research mentorship program.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Wendy loves waking up early to watch the sunrise before heading to try new brunch spots. In her spare time, she enjoys playing volleyball, practicing her baking skills, and having game nights with friends.
